Agenda for September 13, 2014

Paul Sanow, Cincinnati Woodworking Club Member Mark Costello, UC College of Engineering and Applied Science

The CWC Southwest Group has planned the following program for the September 14th meeting.

Paul Sanow is the winner of the 2014 Fred Weissborn Craftsmanship Award. He will talk about the design and construction work used to create his winning reproduction antique grandfather clock.

The University of Cincinnati's College of Engineering and Applied Science offers a Wood Technology Program. Mark Costello will discuss this program and class offerings.

Frank Miller Tour

Thanks to all that helped and attended the Frank Miller Lumber tour. Thanks especially to Keith Betscher for organizing the box lunches and drinks and to Earl North for organizing the bus charter for the club field trip to the Frank Miller Lumber Company. We had a great time.

Remember that Frank Miller Lumber will deliver wood to your door for no charge with a minimum order. If you can't use a whole lot of lumber at once, consider pooling with your club friends and have it delivered to a central spot.

Their specialty is quarter-sawn white oak (they are one of, if not the largest, US producers of this). They carry a variety of domestic and exotic wood species, including figured wood. They also carry pre-finished, domestic, and imported plywood including Baltic birch. If you are up for a road trip, their outlet store in Union City, IN carries individual boards that you can select.

2014 Fred Weissborn Craftsmanship Award winner! Paul Sanow built this beautiful grandfather clock.

Guests

Guests and prospective members are always welcome at CWC meetings. If you know someone who is a woodworker or wants to learn, please invite them to join us

Discounts

Discounts are another benefit of your club membership

- The membership card is good for 10% off regular prices on non-power tools at Rockler.
- If you make a purchase at Rockler for over $25, tell them you're in the club and get a point for their "Guild Program." For every 20 points, the club gets a $20 gift certificate that we'll use for a door prize.
- Mention your membership when ordering from Frank Miller Lumber to get their "business pricing."
- For those that have current membership, you get a discount at Klingspor. Members can order online at <http://www.woodworkingshop.com>. You need to call 800-228-0000 and set up a user name and password with one of their customer service representatives or create one yourself online. You will need to login before ordering in order to receive the discount.
- See the end of newsletter for a discount at E B Mueller.
- Hartville Tool offers a discount to club members. You can find the details on the club website, in the Woodworking Forum. <http://www.cincinnatiwoodworkingclub.org>
- Special offer from Fine Woodworking's digital subscription (see details at end of newsletter)

Sharing the Knowledge Workshops

We are organizing small group, hands-on, workshops in members' shops on a number of topics. We'll send out an announcement when dates are scheduled and registration is available. Currently we are working on classes on:

- Hand plane sharpening and tuning
- Sketchup for woodworkers
- Cabriole leg shaping

If you have other topics that you'd like have offered, or if you would like to give a workshop, please contact a member of the steering team.

Richard Lenz will enjoy using the kitchen cabinets he built and entered in the Weissborn competition.

Tom Cook entered his lamp & table in the Weissborn Competition

Andy Strain and John Leonardi entered their table lamp in the Founders' Award competition.

Volunteer Opportunities

Jay Ratcliff would like to step down from the Audio-Visual coordinator position. He's willing to stay on through this year and train his replacement on how to run the control panel that works the projector and sound system. This also includes getting the equipment out from the closet and putting it away before and after the meetings. If you are interested in helping out, please contact Jay at the meeting.

The club is also looking for a new back-up photographer to help Ray Jang. All you need is a digital camera and a willingness to take pictures at the meeting and other events. Thanks to Bill Law for his work as the back-up photographer in previous years.

Spring Seminar

We're still gathering ideas and leads for the club's spring seminar. If you have some ideas or would like to see a particular topic, contact VP John Branam.

Show and Tell

We have Show and Tell at every meeting. Please share your spring and summer projects with us. No project is too small. We all get inspiration and ideas from seeing what others have done. Consider also entering your projects in the Founders Award competition at the May meeting

Video Library

Don't forget about the Club's video library. Rental fee is only $1.00. There is a deposit of $10.00, which is returned to you when the video is returned. Club member Manuel Canales maintains the video library

Jim Shaefer Toy Project

We are again sending toys and children's items to CAP for the Christmas season. These items will be collected at the November meeting. Please consider making a few toys in your spare shop time.

CAP would appreciate larger items. Examples include:

- Car carriers (we have information on our website for making a jig) , police cars, dump trucks, fire trucks, airplane, helicopters, farm and farm animals, blocks, puzzles
- Tool carriers
- CAP needs more items for girls. They liked the cradles we did this past year, and would like more of those.
- Purchased items, such as make up items, and hair products, are also appreciated.
- Step stools
- Birdhouses for wrens and bluebirds
- They are always in need of furniture - used furniture is acceptable.
- School supplies such as crayons, colored pencils, coloring books, paper, etc. Now is a good time to get these at back-to-school sales.

George Murphy is the new Jim Shaffer Toy Drive chairman. He has a lot of parts for toys including wheels and axles, dowels, and various accessories such as smoke stacks, people, barrels, etc. A list of these components and contact information for George can be found later in this newsletter.

Remember that toys should not have a finish of any kind on them due to CPSC regulations.

Thanks to...

John Leonardi and Terry Elfers for heading up the toy drive in past years.

John Leonardi, Larry Montag and George Murphy for creating forty wheel-sub-assemblies that were later integrated into ten newly built under-bed storage boxes. These were picked up in April by Christian Appalachian Project representatives and being used in the summer camps operated by CAP.

Tool Liquidations

If you know someone who wants to liquidate a shop's tools here are some options:

- E. B. Mueller will buy or consign goods. Contact Hank Lynch hanklynch@muellerco.com or 513-761-6777 x 312
- Kannady & Moore Auctioneers at 859-991-8494

These components are available from George Murphy for anyone needing parts for charity projects. Contact George at a club meeting, via phone at 513-729-0092 or e-mail at murphyhg@fuse.net. You can pick these up at a club meeting or from his home at 8834 Cavalier Drive, near the CWC meeting place

Additional Feature to Meetings

Starting in November, the steering team decided to add a new segment to the meetings, similar to what is in the first dozen pages of all the woodworking magazines -- short to pics of 2-3 minutes each presented by members of the meeting's neighborhood group. Tips and Techniques topics will include:

- Safety
- Shop tips
- Jigs and fixtures
- Newly released tools and materials
- Sharpening tips
- Finishing tips
- Q&A (submit question in advance)

If you have a topic you'd like to present or a topic or question you'd like to see addressed, contact one of your neighborhood's chairmen to get it on the schedule.
